Our Army Correspondence.

CAMP CURTIN, Harrisburg, June 10, 1861.

DEAR GLOBE:—This evening Camp Curtin was, apparently, all alive; look where you would nothing could be seen but companies manœuvreing; nothing heard but the shrill whistle of the fife and the heavy sub a dub, dub, of the drum, mingling with the clarion voice of officers giving prolonged commands. 6½ p. m. found the Parade Ground filled with soldiers, marching and countermarching; wheeling and turning, till in due time and without confusion the long line of four Regiments paroled to each other, crossed the ground, when "parade rest" rang out loud and clear from the proper officers; while the music, collected, was heard advancing from the Guard house, having in their rear a convict, guarded by an armed squad. Prior to the convict's appearing, the commanding officer read out loud and clear, "Private John Ritter has been court-marshalled for insubordination, found guilty, and sentenced to five days' close confinement on bread and water only, and at the expiration of that time to be drummed out of Camp; which is now about to be executed." This over, private Ritter was marched at the point of the bayonet in front of each Regiment, following the music, and then to the gate, where he was expelled from the Camp. The sentence being publicly consummated the companies were marched by the O. S. to their quarters.

There are rumors of a meeting coming off, in Camp, one of these days, passing quietly, but rapidly round. Thinking you, as some of your readers, may have heard of the sad affairs, I will express my opinion relative to the degree of disaffection. There is no doubt about there being quite a feeling in Camp, caused by recruits being denied, by whom. I do not say. Many anticipated being furnished with uniforms, and thought they would receive pay at the end of each month; instead of this, many are literally in rags, and minus money.

Some companies have been here in Camp, they tell me, six weeks, and, as yet, are not "sworn in," nor examined. This, evidently, results only from the negligence of the company officers.—Idle Rumor says, but you know it is poor authority, four or five companies are organizing, secretly, for the purpose of forcing their way out of Camp and compelling the proper authorities to either furnish, or dismiss, them.—Whether there is really any such a plot forming, I know not, and care less.—One thing is certain, if the field officers are composed of the proper material, we will make one uprising do this Camp. If there is cause for complaint it is a sad thing, but there is also a proper way of adjusting the affair and bringing the guilty parties to justice. Judging from any demonstration that I have seen, I would have no reason to believe there is anything of the kind progressing in Camp. I am told there are some four or five companies badly disaffected.

On Monday sixteen in one of the companies were mustered and arrested, placed under guard and compelled to clean the Parade Ground, at the point of the bayonet. To-morrow they will have, I understand, a hearing at Head Quarters. I think in all probability they will be allowed to leave their Captain and connect themselves with some other company. I understand the difficulty is, the company is composed of Dutch and Irish; the Captain being an Irishman, the different "nations" quarrelled, the Dutch thinking the Captain partial to the Irish; doubtless a change will settle the whole difficulty.

The Camp regulations are quite good particularly on paper; but I am of the opinion that there is not enough of the Jackson in the commanding officer.—Were I to take command of the Camp, I would the first night furnish the sentinels with ball and cartridge, and order some six or ten coffins of various sizes. I am opposed to making laws and not obeying them.

Scott Infantry is about being formed into a regiment, I am told, having for their Colonel A No. 1 man, Captain Gregg, of Centre Co. There are some fine companies forming the regiment.

The general health of the Camp is good; but few, comparatively, in the Hospital.

The 2d Michigan Regiment quartered in this Camp over night on their way to Washington. They are a fine set of boys and will doubtless be efficient troops.

Yours truly,
A RECRUIT.

ANCIENT JERUSALEM,
A LARGE AND BEAUTIFUL
ISOMETRICAL PICTURE
OF
JERUSALEM
And the Sacred Places Surrounding the HOLY CITY,
AS THEY APPEARED IN ANCIENT TIMES.
The above work is commended to the favorable notice of clergymen, and those having charge of Sunday-schools, Bible-classes, and public institutions.
It is about 9 feet long and 6 feet wide, colored and varnished, and mounted on canvas with rollers.
It has been constructed from the most reliable and authentic sources, and will be found an invaluable aid to those engaged in lecturing on the Holy Land, or in imparting instruction to school classes on the subject to which it refers.
It aims to give an exact idea of the city as it appeared in ancient times. It is taken as a "bird's eye" or "balloon" view, the beholder being, in imagination, placed at a considerable elevation, so as to take a comprehensive view of the city and the whole country for some distance around.
The view is accompanied with an Outline Key, in which the different localities are numbered, and a Descriptive Manual containing all the information necessary to enable one to use the view to advantage in teaching or lecturing.

THE SUNDAY-SCHOOL TIMES.
This is a Weekly Religious Paper, published at the very low price of ONE DOLLAR A YEAR. It is designed for Parents, Teachers, and all who are engaged or interested in the religious training of the young. It is also an excellent Family Paper.
A portion of the Sunday-School Times is occupied with Narratives and other matter particularly interesting to young persons. Teachers will find in it much that they will like to read to their classes—interesting matter prepared to their hands, and such as they cannot find elsewhere. For the same reasons, members of Bible-classes, and the older scholars generally, will be greatly benefited by the perusal of this paper.
The Sunday-School Times has every week a report of the choicest matter, selected from the Noon Prayer Meetings, which are so interesting to all classes of Christians.
Besides a large amount of general religious intelligence, the Sunday-School Times contains all the most recent Sunday-school news. It reports all the important Conventions of Sunday-school teachers. It discusses the questions which most interest and perplex teachers and parents, respecting the various methods of Religious Training for the young, the means of gaining the attention and affections of children, and especially of securing their conversion and bringing them to Christ. The subject of Mission-Schools for cities, and of Sunday-school missionary work for the interior, is thoroughly canvassed. Indeed, there is hardly a topic of practical importance to any who are interested in the subject of religious education, which is not here brought under consideration from week to week.
The conductors of this paper endeavor to remember, that the great end of all Christian effort is to bring men to Christ. They aim accordingly, to put into every number of the paper something which shall have for its direct object the conversion of souls.

SPECIAL OFFER.
The proprietors of the Sunday-School Times have acquired the exclusive right of sale of the splendid work mentioned above, the MAP OF ANCIENT JERUSALEM, offer it as a special premium to those superintendents, teachers, or others, who will assist in getting new subscribers to the paper.
We offer this superb premium to any one who will send us the names of 12 new subscribers and $12 in cash.
CAUTION.
☞In every case, before beginning to canvass, be sure to write to us and obtain the necessary documents and instructions. These will help you greatly in prosecuting the work, and will save you many mistakes. Enclose 3 cents to pay postage. Address
PROPRIETORS OF THE SUNDAY-SCHOOL TIMES,
148 South Fourth street, Philadelphia.
N. B.—Specimens of the Sunday-School Times, and a copy of the Map of Ancient Jerusalem, may be seen at the Bookstore of WM. LEWIS, Huntingdon.

Red, White, and Blue.

Oh Columbia, the gem of the ocean,
The home of the brave and the free,
The shrine of each patriot's devotion,
A world offers homage to thee.
Thy mandates make heroes assemble,
When liberty's form stands in view,
Thy banners make tyranny tremble,
When borne by the red, white, and blue.
When borne by the red, white, and blue,
When borne by the red, white, and blue,
Thy banners make tyranny tremble,
When borne by the red, white, and blue.

When war waged its wide desolation,
And threaten'd our land to deform,
The ark then of freedom's foundation,
Columbia rode safe through the storm.
With her garland of victory o'er her,
When so proudly she bore her bold crew,
With her flag proudly floating before her,
The boast of the red, white, and blue.
The boast of, &c.

The wine cup, the wine cup bring hither,
And fill you it up to the brim,
May the wreath they have won never wither,
Nor the star of their glory grow dim,
May the service united ne'er sever,
And hold to their colors so true,
The army and navy forever,
Three cheers for the red, white, and blue.
Three cheers for, &c.

Letter from the Editor.

CHAMBERSBURG, June 12, '61.

DEAR "GLOBE":—I left you rather unexpectedly, on Monday noon—visited Camp Curtin in the evening, found our boys of the "Huntingdon Infantry," Capt. Harrison, and "Scott Infantry," Capt. Dare, all enjoying good health. We left Harrisburg on yesterday morning—arrived here at noon—visited Camp Chambers in the afternoon—met with many of our "boys" belonging to Bell, Neff, and Lloyd's companies, and found them generally in good health, but tired waiting for a fight. We unexpectedly run against our old friend James Ellis, who passed through the Mexican war. I assure you the meeting made us feel as if we were at home. Mr. Ellis is a member of a Johnstown company. We also met with friend Wm. C. McCauly, belonging to a Centre county company. On our way in from Camp Chambers we also met with Capt. Jos. Johnston, of Petersburg. He reports his men in general good health. We will visit his Camp to-day. Camp Slifer and Camp McClure are broken up—the military are opening new camps on the road leading to Greencastle, and they can be seen in every direction, right and left, two, three and four miles from this place. Quite a mutiny occurred in the 2d Regiment yesterday. Two full companies and a portion of a third, not receiving proper rations, left their Camp and came to town and got on a "high horse." During the afternoon, two companies of regulars were ordered to hunt up and take back into Camp the men who had left without leave of absence. Before dark the most of the men were coaxed and driven back. There will be care taken that their rations are better hereafter. While writing, some fifty army teams are passing, loaded with provisions.—Everything has a warlike appearance here.

There is not less than twenty thousand men encamped between this place and Greencastle, some eleven miles distant, and the number will be swelled to not less than thirty thousand before the close of the week. Be not surprised if you hear of a noise in the neighborhood of Harper's Ferry before Sunday noon next. We shall remain the week to see what new movements shall turn up—and report.

The mail will close in a few moments, so I close.

Yours, W. L.

☞ We have received a copy of the Pennsylvania Fifth, printed by the "ragged boys" of the Fifth Regiment. It looks well and is very ably edited by Lieut. Ely, of company G. Its work is done by Samuel Lascomb, Jacob Ely, Henry Hissrich, Alfred Pearson, Frank Reifsnyder, A. Kinney Buoy, Robert Smith and George Simpson, the latter three are of the "Standing Stone Guards," of this place. Success to the undertaking.

COMING TO THEIR SENSES.—The Adriatic brings the important intelligence that the British Government have decided not to allow the entry of privateers into their ports. This news is interesting to us, and a good deal more so to the lords of the cotton realm. If it be true, it knocks a very large stone from the underpin of the edifice of secession Monarchy.

☞ Terrorism overshadows eastern Virginia, like a black pall. Planters are in constant fear of their lives; slaves are deserting, crops are poor, while only war, with its devastation and horror, stares them in the face.

☞ Gen. Patterson has placed an operator in the telegraphic office at Chambersburg, whose business it will be to supervise all the dispatches relating to the movements of the army going from that office.

☞ Drs. Keff and McKinney of this county, have received the appointment of assistant army surgeons. To what regiments they have been attached has not yet been stated.

The Latest News.

Important from Fortress Monroe.

Advance of United States Troops—Fatal Mistake—Firing upon Friends—Repulse of the U. States Troops—A Masked Battery—Twenty five Killed and One Hundred Wounded—The Expedition to Harper's Ferry—The Convention at Wheeling—The Point of Rocks Abandoned—Rumors from Harper's Ferry.

BALTIMORE, June 11.—The steamer from Old Point Comfort has arrived with the following intelligence, dated at Fortress Monroe last evening. Gen. Butler having learned that the rebels were forming an entrenched camp with strong batteries at great Bethel, nine miles from Hampton on the Yorktown road, he deemed it necessary to dislodge them. Accordingly, movements were made last night from Fortress Monroe and Newport News.

About midnight, Col. Duryea's Zouaves and Col. Townsend's Albany regiment crossed the river at Hampton by means of six large batteaux, manned by the Naval Bridge, and took up the line of march. The former were some two miles in advance of the latter.

At the same time, Col. Benedix's regiment and a detachment of the Vermont and Massachusetts regiments, at Newport News, moved forward to form a junction with the regiments from Fortress Monroe, at Little Bethel, about half way between Hampton and Great Bethel.

The Zouaves passed Little Bethel at about 4 o'clock A. M. Benedix's Regiment arrived next and took a position at the intersection of the roads. Not understanding the signal, the Zouave regiment in the darkness of the morning fired upon Col. Townsend's column, marching in close order and led by Lieut. Butler, son of Gen. Butler, and also his aid, with two pieces of artillery.

Other accounts say that Col. Townsend's regiment fired first. At all events, the fire of the Albany regiment was harmless, while that of the Germans was fatal, killing one man and fatally wounding two others with several slight casualities.

The Albany regiment being back, the Germans discovered from the accoutrements left on the field that the supposed enemy was a friend. They had in the meantime fired nine rounds with small arms and a field piece. The Zouaves hearing the fire had turned and fired also upon the Albany boys.

At day break Col. Allen's and Col. Carr's Regiments moved from the rear of the fortress to support the main body.

The mistake at Little Bethel having been ascertained, the buildings were burned, and a Major with two prominent Secessionists, named Livery and Whiting, were made prisoners.

The troops then advanced upon Great Bethel in the following order: the Zouaves, Col. Bender, Lieut. Col. Washburne, Col. Allen and Col. Carr. At that point our regiments formed and successively endeavored to take a large masked battery of the Secessionists.

The effort was futile, our three small pieces of artillery not being able to cope with the heavy rifled cannon of the enemy, according to some accounts thirty in number.

The rebel battery was so completely masked that no men could be seen, but the flashes of the guns only. There were probably less than 1000 men behind the battery of the rebels

A well concerted movement might have secured the position, but Brig. Gen. Pierce, who commanded the expedition, seemed to have lost his presence of mind, and the Troy Regiment stood an hour exposed to a galling fire. An order to retreat was at length given, but at that moment Lieut. Greble of the U. S. Army, and in command of the Artillery, was struck by a cannon ball and instantly killed. He had spiked his gun and was gallantly endeavoring to withdraw his command.

Capt. George W. Wilson, of the Troy Regiment, after order to retreat, took possession of the gun, and with Qartermaster McArthur, brought it off the field, with the corpse of the beloved Lieutenant.

They brought them to the fortress this evening. There are probably 25 killed and 100 wounded.

Lieut. Butler deserves the greatest credit for bringing off the killed and wounded. Several of the latter are now in the hospital here.

It should have been stated that Col. McChesney's regiment formed a reserve, and that Col. Hawkin's regiment moved from Newport News during the day. The armed vessels went up to Newport News, excepting the Cumberland. All the regiments are now probably at their former quarters.

Much indignation is manifested against Brigadier General Pierce—Gen. Butler has been ubiquitous, doing all in his power to save our men and the honor of our cause.

From Frederick and Harper's Ferry.

FREDERICK, Md., June 11.—From a gentleman well conversant with the localities in and and around Harper's Ferry, who left Hagerstown early this morning, I learn that 10,000 United States troops are between Greencastle, nine miles from the former place, and Chambersburg, from whence they are marching.

Yesterday the Virginians destroyed about 25 canal boats in the vicinity of Harper's Ferry with the intention, it is supposed, of preventing their being used to transport troops across the Potomac.

The rebel troops recently at the Point of Rocks, have certainly been withdrawn, and are now with the main body at Harper's Ferry.

Much disaffection is here reported to exist among the Kentuckians, on the Maryland Heights, and a rumor is current here, that in a few days they intend displaying the Stars and Stripes, and probably deserting in a body.

Advance of the Northwestern Federal Column Towards Harper's Ferry—Virginians Rapidly Reinforcing the Federal Army.

CINCINNATI, June 11.—A special dispatch from Grafton to the Gazette, says the Indiana Zouaves experienced no trouble in reaching Cumberland, no Secessionists were seen, and the Cumberland people were friendly.

One hundred army wagons, and a full supply of horses, etc., are at Parkersburg, en route for Grafton.

Companies of Virginia volunteers are rapidly organizing under General Morris' proclamation, and arms were issued to-day to two fully organized companies from Fairmount. Others are reporting from the South and East. The railroad is clear to Cumberland, and trains are running.—Many delegates and outsiders passed through to-day on their way to the Wheeling Convention.

A special to the Commercial from Wheeling, says the delegates are arriving here. Over five counties east of the Alleghanies are represented, and the feeling for a Provisional Government is predominant.

BALTIMORE, June 11.—The Williamsport correspondent of the American says the skirmishing at Clear Spring continued all day yesterday, between the Home Guard of Clear Spring and Williamsport, and the Virginians who were endeavoring to destroy dam No. 5. No one on the Maryland side was hurt, but two horses and one man were killed on the Virginia side.

BALTIMORE, June 12.—The steamer from Old Point has arrived. The account received yesterday, embracing all the intelligence received at the headquarters up to the departure of the steamer, was correct. No further military movements have taken place. The soldiers were resting from the great fatigue of the previous day, consequent upon a march of twenty miles and an action of nearly two hours, with not a complete meal for twenty-four hours.

On the withdrawal of the Federal troops the rebel cavalry and infantry, in considerable force, followed as far as the New Market bridge, this side of Little Bethel, inhumanly charging, in some instances, on those bringing off the dead and wounded. The enemy had in the action six guns behind batteries. There were about twenty killed, and it is said the number wounded is not so great as at first reported.

SECOND DISPATCH.

BALTIMORE, June 12.—A gentleman of respectability who came up from Old Point this morning and spent some time in the fortress during yesterday and Monday, says the passengers were greatly astonished on reaching here to learn the greatly exaggerated accounts relative to the repulse at Great Bethel. Up to the time the boat left last evening he was in conversation with both regulars and volunteers who were in the engagement. Some mortification was expressed at the bad management of Gen. Pierce, but none as to the extent of the loss, which was found to be less than at first supposed, on account of the temporary advantage gained by the Confederates.

One of Lieut. Greble's command assured our informant that had an advance been ordered instead of retreat, the battery would have been taken in five minutes more. Lieut. Greble had silenced all their guns except one rifled cannon, which was fired with great rapidity and concentrated entirely on his command. This gun was worked well, but all the rest were badly managed, their balls cutting off the tops of limbs of trees over their heads. Had the battery been well supplied with experienced gunners no doubt the loss would have been heavy.

Lieut. Greble spiked his gun at the moment he received orders to retreat, as it is supposed, on account of his surprise at the orders, presuming that Gen. Pierce had discovered an attempt to cut him off, and that if his gun should be captured in the retreat, he would make it harmless. He had just driven the spike home when he was killed by a ball striking him on the back of the head.

The New York Zouaves, under Col. Benedix, evinced great bravery, and could with difficulty be restrained from making an assault without orders. Five confederates are known to have been killed by the Zouaves on the outside works, and it is presumed from the effective firing of Lieutenant Greble, that considerable damage must have been done to confederates inside of the battery, which was built of sand bags hidden from view by bushes.

Number of Zouaves killed, five, wounded twenty, seven missing.—They attributed their heavy loss to their bright uniforms, whilst the regulars turned it to their superior bravery. The whole number killed and wounded, as far as ascertained at the fortress up to last evening, was 19 killed, 47 wounded, 5 missing.

The rumored loss of Maj. Winthrop was unfounded. Several were killed and inhumanly slaughtered whilst engaged in carrying off their wounded, which caused most a bitter feeling among the troops last evening. Just as the boat was leaving the Zouaves brought in three prisoners—a captain of Confederate cavalry and two privates, splendidly mounted. The elegant trappings of the captain's horse attracted great attention. Another attack on Great Bethel is shortly expected. The picket guards extended nearly to the battle-field.

From Belgium.

The most satisfactory assurances are received from Belgium that there will be no recognition of the Southern Confederacy, in any form, by that Government. An entirely friendly feeling toward the United States Government is manifested.

The statements which the Confederates put forth in regard to supplies of arms imported by them from that country are ascertained, on undoubted authority, to have been very greatly exaggerated.

The Body of Lieut. Greble.

BALTIMORE, June 12.—The remains of the gallant Lieut. Greble arrived here, by the boat, this morning, and were transferred to the train for Philadelphia.

OUR CORRESPONDENCE.

ORBISONIA, June 10, 1861.

DEAR GLOBE:—I believe it is agreeable to your wishes, to have a correspondent, (or an occasional correspondence,) from the townships throughout the county; and seeing that Cromwell is seldom represented through the columns of your paper, I concluded to devote a few lines in her behalf. The past week has been very wet; in fact raining almost every day, causing the farmers to suspend their out-door work till old Sol would make his appearance again. The corn is rather in the back ground, while the wheat is advancing with great rapidity. We expect an abundant harvest.

A Home Guard is being formed in our borough, under command of Maj. P. Templeton, Post Master of this place, for the purpose of protecting our homes and firesides.

We can boast of having a High School in session in this place, which makes quite an improvement in our town. Over fifty scholars are in attendance; a number of them are form a distance. Young ladies and gentlemen are received on the most reasonable terms by the worthy Principal, Ephraim Baker. Mr. Baker is one of the most accommodating, moral and influential gentleman of our vicinity. His capacity for teaching and governing a school cannot be surpassed by any. I will close by hoping the stars and stripes may soon again wave over every State on the continent of America.

PASSIM.

The "Wild Cat" Regiment.

The regiment of lumbermen now in camp at Harrisburg must be "some persimmons," if one-half what is reported of them be true. Their skill with the rifle is a touch above extra. The entire lives of the men are spent in pineries of Potter and Elk counties, except when they are engaged in rafting, and their only pastime is with the rifle, which brings the smallest as well as the largest game to their feet. The use of small shot they consider unworthy the skill of the hunter. They bring down a squirrel from the top of a pine so lofty that the game is scarcely visible to ordinary eye-sight. The men in their daily work of cutting timber, receive more or less axe-wounds, and for this reason several of them were rejected on inspection. They grumbled immensely at their rejection, and are determined to fight, and for this purpose are seeking admission to other regiments. One man who was rejected, lost his temper, and offered to bet the inspector that he would walk fifty miles without complaining of weariness, and not eat or drink anything until the work was accomplished. More than this, he offered to double the first wager that he could pierce the eyes of Jeff. Davis, or any other traitor, with his rifle, at a distance of two hundred and fifty yards. The inspecting officer was so impressed by the man's remonstrance against rejection that he declined the bet and ordered him to fall back into ranks. Five of the rejected men recently exhibited their skill with the rifle, by knocking a five-cent piece from a split stick at the distance of one hundred and fifty yards.

FROM WASHINGTON.

[Special despatches to The Press.]

Important Arrest at Alexandria.

WASHINGTON, June 10, 1861.

Last night some soldiers of the Fifth Pennsylvania regiment reported that they had seen a suspicious hack, with a negro driver, in one of the principal streets of Alexandria, and immediately First Lieutenant John P. Ely and Second Lieutenant Missimer, of company G, and Lieut. Burger, of company H, under command of Capt. Medlar, provost marshal of the same regiment, not only took the negro and his hack in charge, but also his master, Mr. Faucit, who keeps a livery stable in the town. Important papers were found in the negro's boots, and sewed up in the cushions, and from papers found upon Mr. Faucit, and in his house, it was evident that he had been regularly communicating information of the movements of our troops to the traitors at Manassas Junction, and in return bringing instructions to the secret Secessionists who have not yet left. It is rumored that before the day is out arrests will be made of many of the citizens, which may be the means of fully developing the spy system of the traitors. Most of the letters found upon the negro were written from Manassas, and many contained appeals to their friends to remove from Alexandria as soon as possible. This man Faucit has been receiving passes regularly from the provost marshall under the guise of being a Union man. From the letters thus captured, it is certain that a regular system is kept up by which all the doings of the Administration and the army are forwarded South and placed in the hands of Jeff. Davis and his Cabinet.

Col. John A. Washington.

This creature who dishonors the noble name and memory of the Father of his country, and who, when he saw that the loyal citizens were determined to purchase Mount Vernon to present it to the country, like an avaricious speculator, charged an enormous price for it, has been prowling around with his band of traitors to steal what he so lately sold. His slaves, however, are not the faithful servants that he would try to make believe they are, for on Saturday one of them ran away and came within the lines of the Grand Army. The overseer, mounted upon a superb horse, had the mortification, on applying for the fugitive, to lose his horse, and to be sent home with tidings of his discomfiture to his master, the Colonel.

Information has been received here that letters from the seceded States brought to the West have no additional postage charged, as required by Postmaster General Reaggan's official programme, thus showing that his system is not yet in operation.

Postmaster General Blair, it is said, will require persons receiving letters from the Confederate States to pay the postage, notwithstanding they bear prepaid stamps, which are regarded as having been stolen by the seceded States from the Government of the United States, and, therefore, are not entitled to credit, no equivalent having been received for them.

Despatches from Paris.

Important advices from Mr. Dayton represent the aspect of American affairs before the French Court as exceedingly flattering to the United States Government. The Emperor, who has, perhaps, a more accurate understanding of our national affairs than any other crowned head in Europe, has no idea of recognizing the secession States.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—It is reliably stated that the rebels for two days past have been moving from Harper's Ferry to Winchester, and thence towards Manassas Junction, as fast as wagons can be procured to carry their baggage.

Gen. Beauregard has issued a proclamation from Manassas Junction, extravagantly picturing the deplorable consequences to be expected from an invasion of the Federal troops.

PRACTICAL CALCULATOR.

RÖHRER'S PRACTICAL CALCULATOR.

A Book of Plain Rules and Calculations for Business, Operations, by Martin M. Röhrer, Practical Surveyor and Conveyancer. New Edition, published by J. B. Lippincott & Co., Philadelphia.

This work contains 204 pages, and upwards of 500 Rules and Examples, entirely and thoroughly practical, such as arise every day in the common pursuits of Business. It has already passed through a number of editions in rapid succession, and is pronounced by all classes of business men to be the handiest book of reference, pertaining to calculations, that has ever been published.

Every example in the book is worked out in full and stated in a plain manner, so that when a parallel case arises, those referring to the work will find no difficulty in solving it; in a word, the general arrangement of the CALCULATOR is simple, that any one who knows how to add, subtract, multiply and divide, can easily solve any ordinary example that arises in business, or arrive at the true result of any estimate required.

The chief aim of the author has been to eschew theory and philosophy in figures, aiming only at facts and simplicity, believing that business men care little about speculating time in discussing the philosophy of rules, or the science of figures, deeming it sufficient for their purpose to be able at a moment, by reference, to arrive at the true result. The CALCULATOR differs in the respect from all other Arithmetics of the day and kindred works—it is a key to practical business calculations—it is, in the hands of the business man, what the key to mathematical works in the hands of the teacher in the school room—it facilitates time and insures correctness.

THE WORK TREATS OF THE

Measurement of Land, of Lumber, of Brick and Brick Work, of Stone and Stone work, of grain and grain bins, of coal and coal bins, of wood, of solids, of liquids, of circular, square or irregular vessels, of cisterns and of roofing, of plasterer's, painter's glazier's, paver's, plumber's, paper hanger's and upholsterers' work. It treats of currency and of foreign and domestic exchanges, of the decimal system, of reduction and its extended application to business, of simple and of compound interest, and their entire application to business transactions, with the laws and usages governing the same, together with numerous commercial forms—of legal tender, of partial payment on notes, of banking and bank discount, of equation of payment and of partnership accounts, of assessment of taxes, of weights and measures, of square and cubic measure, of the square root and its application to business of surfaces, of excavation, and of many other important practical matters not within the scope of an advertisement to mention.

IT IS JUST THE BOOK FOR THE

Farmer, the merchant, the mechanic, the artizan, or the professional man. It has proven a valuable auxiliary to the lawyer, the justice of the peace, the conveyancer, and real estate broker, to the assessor, the banker, the clerk, to the civil engineer and the surveyor, to the carpenter and bricklayer, to the stonemason and the plasterer, to the paper hanger and upholsterer, to the paver and the slater, &c., &c.; each and all will find it adapted to their various wants better than any book published.

Which, as they will perceive, will enable them, by proper energy, perseverance, and industry, to provide comfortable and permanent homes for themselves and families, with, comparatively speaking, very little capital.

CHEAP LANDS OF ILLINOIS.

No State in the valley of the Mississippi offers so great an inducement to the settler as the State of Illinois.—There is no portion of the world where all of the conditions of climate and soil so admirably combine to produce those two great staples, corn and wheat, as the prairies of Illinois.

RICH ROLLING PRAIRIE LANDS.

The deep rich loam of the prairies is cultivated with such wonderful facility that the farmers of the Eastern and Middle States are moving to Illinois in great numbers. The area of Illinois is about equal to that of England, and the soil is
